

Integrated Model of Care for Responding to Suspected Elder Abuse (IMoC) Project

Elder Abuse Liaison Officer

When you suspect or know an older person is at risk or experiencing abuse you can:

- Talk to the older person about your concerns (if safe to do so)
- Provide an opportunity to speak to the older person on their own
- Listen to their worries
- Validate their experience
- Reassure the older person it is not their fault
- Let the older person know there is help available
- Contact the Elder Abuse Liaison Officer about options

How can the Elder Abuse Liaison Officer assist you?

- Available for phone consultations
Mon - Fri, 8am-4.30pm
- Provide advice, support and guidance about clients you know or suspect are impacted by elder abuse
- Advise you about, and link you to, resources and services to support your client
- Attend case conferences to support decision making and care planning
- Deliver an in-service to your team about the Integrated model of care for responding to suspected elder abuse (IMoC)
- Support access to training and education about elder abuse

NO referral form or client consent necessary.

Available to support health and community service providers across Mornington Peninsula & Frankston.
